

TIME TO CELEBRATE

The curtains are up for a Downham theatre group who are performing Keith Waterhouse's Celebration.

Stage Two Downham kicked off last night (Wednesday) with their latest production which runs until Saturday night at the village hall, starting at 7.30pm.

The 16-strong cast have been rehearsing since September.

Tickets are available from Pat Hargreaves on Clitheroe 27296, or Janet Hulme on Clitheroe 24157

Members of the cast were snapped in the wedding scene during rehearsal

THE CITIZEN

Thursday 22nd November 1990

SOMETHING TO CLEBRATE

Gearing up for their current production 'Celebration' which plays at Downham Village Hall until Saturday, are members of the Downham Stage Two company pictured here taking a break from some last-minute rehearsals.

HERALD AND POST

22nd November 1990