To Liz (Lady Elrood)

What a farce!
You were absolutely hilarious.

Thank you for all the hours of hard work you put into making my first production such a success.

I hope you enjoyed yourself.

Love from

Desley. xx

(and Brian)

Lord Elrood's a blast
For the rest of the cast
And Ada's stuck for a feller.
George is fond of his bucket
And upset when she took it
He likes her but is too scared to tell 'er
Lady E is cash strapped
And Chester's just tapped
And Miss P's always left in the cellar.
Poor Patricia is baffled
The portrait is snaffled
By a bloke in a suit that is yellow.
His boss isn't cute
Though he's dressed in a suit
And he just wants the lady to sell 'er.
In the midst of this strife
Is a bloke and his wife
With a cake fork to use as a propeller.
Now there's no more to be said
All the bills can be paid
And the Elroods are feeling quite mellow.
