We would like to express our thanks to all friends of the Society who have assisted in anyway especially in connection with this evening's refreshments. In addition we would like to acknowledge the assistance given by Eaves Hall Country Club who have provided chairs and other Stage properties.

"Time of My Life" is a play in which time does funny and peculiar things! Scenes move gradually from the present into the past and forward into the future. In the genial setting of Calvinu's restaurant we glimpse at family battles, negotiations, tears and reconciliations within a complex sequence of.....The Time of My Life!
