

STAGE TWO DOWNHAM

PRESENTS

a Fly in the intment

Why should Ron Corley MP, the Minister for the Environment, be searching the seaside bungalow of his ex-mistress Donna on a Friday afternoon in summer? And why does his virtuous wife Louise turn up at the same place on the same day? And what was a romantic doctor with a bunch of flowers doing in Sussex when his practice is in London? Add to these world shattering questions the presence of a frustrated policewoman (who is definitely not from Sussex) and a devious pizza delivery man (who definitely is devoted to his mother) and you have the makings of a riotous farce.

A Farce by
DEREK BENFIELD
Directed
David King

DOWNHAM VILLAGE HALL
7.30 pm

Thursday April 1st, 2004

Admission by programme
£4.50
(including refreshments)

CHARACTERS

The Right Honourable Ron Corley MP, Minister for the Environment Bob Cleeve

Donna, his enthusiastic mistress
Lesley Haworth

Brenda Hackett,
A frustrated policewoman
Glen Purchase

Albert
A devious pizza delivery man
Gerry Purchase

Louise Corley
The minister's virtuous wife
Liz Wrigley

George Billing
A romantic doctor
Brian Haworth

It all happens in Donna's bungalow on the Sussex Coast of England during a hot summer

ACT I A Friday afternoon
ACT II A few minutes later.

Time? The recent past, the present, and (probably) the future!

Continuity Rachel Scott

Properties Pat Hargreaves

Lighting Fran Osborne

Sound David Scott

Stage Manager Dan Bradbury

Front of House Mel Scolah

Design Dan Bradbury

Stage Two thank all who have helped with this production. Special thanks you, our audience, for your support. Please put the date of the next production in your diary

November 24th, 25th, 26th, 28th. 2004
(BBC Permittng!)