

In 2009, Stage Two Downham stepped back in time! It had been 20 years since the group had performed 'Round and Round the Garden' by Alan Ayckbourn, which was the first play presented by them, on the Downham Stage. Over a period of 20 years, the group had presented thirty-nine plays in this hall; an ever growing total. After our very successful presentations of "The Norman Conquests", over a three year period, it was time for a change, so, it was decided to stage "84 Charing Cross Road" in 2011. Now, it's back to madcap comedy, with "Out Of Order" by Ray Cooney. Do enjoy your evening.

It is with sadness that Stage Two Downham has had to say goodbye to Elizabeth Wrigley, who died just a few weeks ago. Liz was the Treasurer and an actor and very much a part of the backbone of the society. Her enthusiasm, support, hard work and sense of humour, over many years, will be missed by us all.
