

Florindo has killed Beatrice's brother, Federigo and has fled to Venice. Beatrice, in the meantime, disguised as her 'dead' brother has gone in search of Florindo, who she loves. The plot thickens! Beatrice, on the way to Venice, picks up a servant, Truffaldino, who has also, unbeknown to her, agreed to be a servant to her lover!

Hence the servant to Two Masters - which after many twists and turns ends happily...would you believe!
