

Heritage Open Days 2019 in Clitheroe
Enjoy these FREE activities!

Rivers of Peace & Protest

Saturday 14 September 2019

10.15: Commemoration of 1919's Peace Processions, starting at St Mary Magdalene Church, with actors bringing the past alive

From 11.15 – 3.30 pm.....

Decorate a pebble for our River of Peace art installation at Clitheroe Castle

Browse displays at Platform Gallery to trace the history behind our Rivers of Peace and Protest theme and

Follow the Soldier Quest Trail around Clitheroe and /or collect your self-guided historic Clitheroe trail

Listen to memories of the Home Front in WW2 and of the development of the Jet Engine at Clitheroe Castle

Read about Conscientious Objectors at the Quaker Meeting House and visit the Pendle Radicals Hut in the market

Step into the cells under Clitheroe Library. Tours of approx 30 mins at 11.30, 1.30 & 3 pm. At 12.15, hear Shirley Penman tell the history of Clitheroe's mayoral chains, in the presence of the Mayor

From 1.30 - 3.30 pm

Listen to Phil Knight's stories and songs at the Ale House

See a fire engine of today and hear about Clitheroe's fire service of yesteryear outside the Platform Gallery

4.00: The Grand Choir end our day with music written to commemorate the end of the WWI, at St Mary Magdalene Church

www.heritageopendays.org.uk/visiting for more details

Other Heritage Open Days events in and around Clitheroe - all free

Saturday 14 September

9.30am-4pm St. Mary Magdalene's Church, Church Street, Clitheroe, Open for self-guided tours and offering Big Breakfast or afternoon tea.

10am- 4pm and Sun 15 September, 12 – 4pm St Mary & All Saints Parish Church, Whalley Take a 'Tower Tour', see the bells in action and try handbell ringing.

11am and 2pm Guided tour of Bellman Park, Clitheroe, led by Andrew Collinson, covering its social, industrial and agricultural significance. Meet at Clitheroe Auction Mart car-park, booking required.

Sunday 15 September

2.30pm Walk the Wells, starting at Stock Well, Parson Lane, Clitheroe, and learn about the history of the town's water supply as well as the importance of water in the world today. Booking preferred.

Wednesday 18 September

7.30pm Flow Lines, ABC Memorial Hall, Hurst Green, a reading by Ribble Valley Stanza group of their poems reflecting on the significance of water in the area's historical and natural heritage.

Saturday 21 September

11am A guided tour of Clitheroe inns, based on the book Inns of Clitheroe Past & Present local historian, John Lambert. Meet at Castlegate, booking required

11am-4pm Everything is Awesome@Clitheroe, a celebration of the Trinity story with pop-up creative play area and crafty activities at Trinity Methodist Church, Wesleyan Row, Clitheroe.

Produced by Clitheroe HOD steering group, White House, Henthorn Rd, BB7 3BY