A DISCO in the old courtroom of the Hark to Bounty Inn, Slaidburn, followed a roast beef dinner for about 50 members and friends of Waddington Drama Group on Friday.

The evening also featured a short cabaret-style entertainment by chairman Derek Green and John Thompson.

This week it was back once more to rehearsals for the group's next production, "Lord Arthur Savile's crime," a costume comedy adapted from a short story by Oscar Wilde.
