The paragon performed in March could be 1972

I still cannot trace the date of Breath of Spring

One newspaper report states that

'formed by Waddington W.I in 1960's, originally based at Waddington Methodist Church changing locations in 1970's to St. Helen's school room - where it became known as Waddington Drama group. This remained their home until 1989'

Approach Waddington W.I. and see if they still have the records
